AHMEDABAD: US-based Ronda Anderson has come to Ahmedabad for the first time, on invitation from her father Bob who has gifted her a bariatric surgery so that her three-decade-old struggle with the bulge finally comes to an end.

Ronda weighs 130 kg and this 38-year-old says she remembers to be fighting the battle against bulge ever since she was a teen. "I have been on a diet almost all my life," says Ronda.

Be it the Cabbage diet, the Atkin's Diet, the GM motors, the South Beach diet, Ronda confesses to have been there, done that. She says she also tried all kinds of exercise. "I would lose 30 pound and the moment I slackened a little, I would gain 50 pound. I think I can put on a couple of kg only by looking at good food," Ronda says even as she makes light of her frustration struggle.
